EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

My name is Craig Eden and I'm the UAW International appointed Representative for Local 1166. I have been at Chrysler 29 years and started out in Die Cast. I took an apprenticeship through Chrysler and became a Toolmaker. Around 8 years ago I had a daughter that was needing help and I went through the EAP(Brian West) and got her help. After that Brian asked me if I would be interested in helping people with various problems as his alternate. After Brian's passing I eventually got the job as EAP for 1166.

The EAP job can be quite the handful at times but also can be so very rewarding when you can help to change someone's life for the better. We have a great program that our union negotiated for and should be utilized by its members who need help. I am always available to anyone who asks for help and have several resources that can assist them in getting the help they need. Thanks for your time and letting me represent in this process.

This is what God's kingdom is like: a bunch of outcasts and oddballs gathered at a table, not because they are rich or worthy or good, but because they are hungry, because they said yes. And there's always room for more.

STANDING COMMITTEE CONFERENCE 2023

By Alisha Grimes

Thank you for giving me the opportunity to attend the Standing Committee Conference at The Walter and May Reuther UAW Family Education Center June 25-30. There were a total of 144 UAW brothers and sisters from all different locals in attendance as well. Nikki Smith and Matthew Donlevy did an excellent job instructing our classes. Some of the things we learned about was UAW Core Values, Standing Committee Breakouts, Leadership Essentials, Strategic Planning, and Organizing. I also attended a Labor and History class. I learned that the over 1,100 workers are estimated to have been killed while trying to organize or strike for better working conditions. We got some good ideas from other locals that we hope to organize in the future for ours, such as a motorcycle blessing done by our plant Chaplin at the beginning of spring next year. If you ever get the opportunity to attend classes you should go.

You can find up coming classes at <https://region2b.uaw.org/call-letters> they also have online classes available.

Alisha Grimes

THE INVITATION FOR INVOLEMENT

By Josiah Ramirez

“$305.52?” I heard Duane Wyant say as he was going over a list of expenses. Looking around at a stack of receipts and checks in front of me, I quickly found the corresponding number with the correct amount and responded, “got it!” which was followed by the click of an enter key as Josh Applegate added that to the balance for the monthly total. This would go on for an entire week as the trustees would go through the last 6 months of expenses making sure everything balanced out correctly for each month. This audit was one of the first big “Trustee Responsibilities” that I have had the opportunity to carry out as a newly elected trustee.

I remember last year around this time; I had walked over to Duane Wyant (Buddha as many know him) who was already a trustee and began to ask him a few questions like “what is a trustee?” and “what type of responsibilities does a trustee have?”. He answered them and then asked, “are you thinking about running next year bud?” in which my response was “I’m not sure yet”. I was a little later to the show in my Union involvement than I should have been. For many years I would clock in and clock out, vote when it was time, never really attended any union meetings unless they were informational ones during contract years and that was it. It wasn’t until almost 2-3 years prior to that conversation that Buddha approached me and said, “what would you think about helping throw our newsletter together every month?” I thought about it and said “yeah! I’ll give it a try” and little by little I have been taking small steps to where I am now.

I used to have this pre-misconception of what union involvement would look like. I thought I would have to be out front and center with something, and there are definitely opportunities to do that, but I quickly learned that I could be involved at a capacity that I was comfortable with. Me personally, I love doing stuff on computers, I love doing audio, video, and graphics editing and guess what? There was a place for me to do some of that. I have had the opportunities to go to large International UAW conventions and take pictures. I have had the opportunity to stand on the front lines with my Union brothers and sisters and capture images of solidarity during a strike, and I have had opportunities to go capture images for fundraisers that support outreaches that our local does for our community.

After being involved for a time, I decided I wanted to take another step and decided to run for one of the three trustee positions. When I received the text message the night of the election that I had won one of those spots, I was excited; not only that, but I also felt a sense of pride that I have the opportunity to represent our local with a voice on the E-board and I hope to do it well.

In closing, I realize that the beginning of my involvement started with a small invitation and that involvement has led me down a road that has given me so much more than I could have expected. For those of you who have been sitting idle because you were like me because you are not sure if there is place for you, then I would like to invite you to pull a chair up because there’s a place for everyone!

Thank You to everyone that came out to the Strike Workshop our local hosted on July 25th. We had a great show of Solidarity from all the Locals 1166,1302 and 685. The International Organizing Committee lead this workshop. Hundreds of members signed Pledge cards to show their support for our negotiating committee. If you were unable to attend There are pledge cards available in the stewards office. Please make sure your contact information is updated to receive information on upcoming events.

JOIN THE FIGHT FOR A STRONG UNION CONTRACT

The New York Times

"The UAW has opened a new chapter in its storied history, and it may end up looking a lot like its combative past."

3/27/23

Automotive News

"The union has promised a more aggressive approach to bargaining with the Detroit Three." 3/27/23

Our union is back in the fight.

We took cuts in hard times to save the Big Three. Over the last decade, the Big Three made $250 BILLION in profits in North America from our hard work.

It's time to set things right. Together, UAW members are mobilizing to:

- End Tiers - No More Second Class Workers
- Restore COLA - Fair Pay for Our Families
- Secure Jobs - No Plant Closures & Good EV Jobs

Our contract expires on Sept. 14 and we're mobilizing now to win the strong contract our families and communities need. Sign up below to take action and get bargaining updates.

UNITED FOR A STRONG CONTRACT

Bargaining FAQs. Our union contract with the Big Three expires on Sept. 14. Here's information about our member-driven campaign to win the strong contract we've earned.

What can I do to win a strong contract? Sign up with the QR code below to join the fight and get updates on bargaining and local contract actions. Our bargaining team is only as strong as the members behind them. The Big Three are looking to see how hard we're willing to fight. By joining the fight, you make our bargaining team that much stronger.

Are we going to go on strike? The Big Three have the money to meet our demands. But if they don't, we're getting strike-ready. Members voted to raise our strike benefits to $500 a week. That's a boost, but members have been putting money in the bank so we can go one day longer, one day stronger. Start saving now if you haven't already.

The union has always picked a strike target in the past. Which company will it be this time? We're not tipping our hand because we don't want any of the companies to get comfortable. We have big demands at all three employers, and they need to know we're coming for all of them.

We're fighting to end tiers, restore COLA, and win secure jobs. Are these our only demands? No. UAW members and retirees have a lot of pressing needs. Our bargaining team has put together strong proposals to win what all our members and retirees have earned. But bargaining teams are only as strong as the members standing behind them. We need a might army of members to win big at the table.
